

INVITATION

reThinking Disputes

Collaboration and Constructive Dispute Resolution in the 21st Century

When?

Monday, 25 March 2019, 13.00-18.00 (registration from 12.30)

Where?

Industriens hus, H. C. Andersens Blvd. 18, Copenhagen V

Who?

Michael McIlwrath

chief global litigation counsel, Baker Hughes, a GE company (US)

Bill Marsh

international mediator, conflict adviser and trainer (UK)

Jane Gunn

international mediator and speaker (UK)

Host:

Moderator: Martin Breum independent journalist (DK)

Admission: Free

RSVP: 8 March 2019

Sign up: mediationsinstituttet.dk/aktiviteter/rethinking_disputes

In cooperation with:

PROGRAMME

Welcome

Tine Roed

Deputy Director General, Confederation of Danish Industry (Dansk Industri)

Ulrika Dieroff

Head of Business Support, Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Southern Sweden
(Sydsvenska Handelskammaren)

Speakers

Michael McIlwrath

Experience of commercial mediation from a user's perspective
How General Electric moved from litigation/arbitration to ADR/mediation and the essential findings from the Global Pound Conferences 2016/2017

Bill Marsh

Nearly 30 years of international mediation experience from the mediator's perspective

Jane Gunn

A practical guide for companies on how to go from litigation/arbitration to mediation

CASE-story - Herlev Hospital - Region Hovedstaden vs. NCC

Participants

Connie Barfoed

Project Director, Nyt Hospital Herlev,
Region Hovedstaden

Lars Scheibel

Section Director,
NCC Construction Denmark

Kurt Helles Bardeleben

Mediator,
Partner DLA Piper

Panel discussion and Q&A

Networking, snacks & drinks

Sponsorer:

dreyersfond

DANSKE ADVOKATER

Mediator
advokater

 MI Partner

 oresundsadvokater.com et netværk på tværs af sundet

DVJ | Danske Virksomhedsjurister